Daydream supports your development in Asia & China

To 2018 ...

Expanding your business in Asia

requires the development of a local presence to help identify opportunities and to respond rapidly to customers

Shanghai, the business capital of China, is an ideal access point for doing business across the entire Asian/Pacific region

How do you launch a team in Shanghai to access the vast Asian market:

- Without the difficulty of creating your own legal entity (e.g. WFOE)?
- While minimizing expenses?
- With local HR to lessen the turnover of your team in Shanghai and guarantee business continuity?
- With simplified administrative management to maximize your team's focus on Asian business growth?
- And with greater confidence in remote monitoring and management of activities?
